

Clarke College

1983-1988

"The Way We Were"
Book 2

In loving memory of

Vivian Banks

Gregg Batte

Josh Butler

Betty Gelston

Faye Ruddick

Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Nobles.

Carla McNally and Tim McCaffrey posed for a WHO'S WHO photo. What was Carla doing with her mouth?

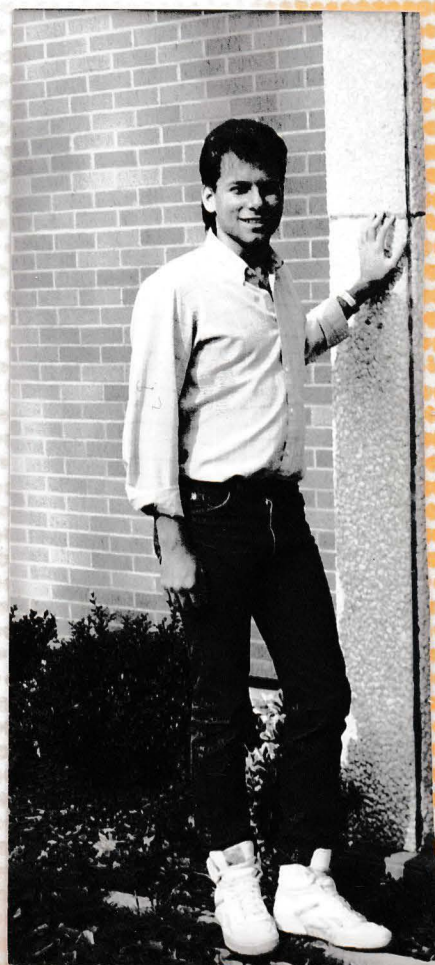

Garland Boyd took advantage of the new courts.

Carla and Terry McNally, from Philadelphia, followed in their fathers footsteps. Their dad also attended Clarke.

The 1985-86 Beauty contestants posed with the judges at a reception. (L to R) Beth Higginbotham, Lisa Ainsworth, Shelly Sasser, Karen Howard, the three judges, Lisa Lloyd, Carla McNally, Amanda Hall, Donna Kay Gomillion, Angela Hutson, Naomi Crowell, and Sandy Summers.

Barry Walton, from Louisville, always had a clean room when he lived in the dorm.

Mike Sandlin watches as Tim Johnson does a flip in a gymnastics class.

Buddy Ramey, from Meridian, and Suzanne Noble play their guitars in her office. Suzanne was a voice teacher for the Music Department at Clarke.

The winners of the Pumkin Run.
(L to R) J. Dow Ford, Mike Sandlin, and Angie sandlin.

Kevin Reine, from Louisiana, ran in the Pumpkin Run.

Marty Romero, Shelly Sasser, and Angela Hutson enjoyed cooking over an open flame at a Turkey Creek fellowship.

Sheila Walley, from Richton, was known by the nickname, "Booger".

Joye McAlpin and David Patterson met at Clarke and eventually married.

Roy Fisher helped with baseball and basketball.

Tim Johnson finally learned how to tumble in gymnastics.

Shea McReynolds, from Brandon, sang with the Clarke College Choir.

William Spencer and Shelly Sasser stopped for a chat at a BSU Retreat.

Daphne Pigott was an Elementary Education major at Clarke.

Chris Adams is the daughter of Clark and Nell Adams.

The JCPENNEY COMPANY supplied the casual wear for the '85-'86 Beauty/Beau Pageant. Shelly Sasser, Amanda Hall, Carla McNally, and Noami Crowell modeled their new look. Check out Carla's perm.

David Bonner, from Columbus, was famous for dropping classes. He was one of the most spiritual athletes to ever attend Clarke.

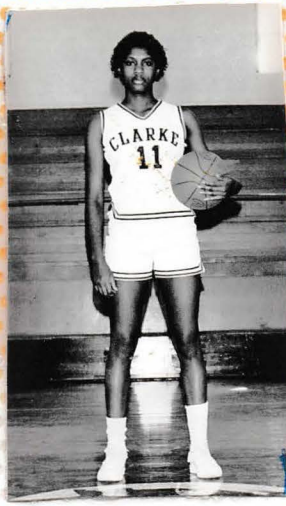

Ann Adkins had to run for basketball.

Ricky Hunt was on his way to English.

Sheila Walley was a member of the Clarke College Choir.

Melody Hill.

Lisa Ainsworth, from Pearl, looks for her pageant outfit.

Lyddia Ramsey was great at intramural volleyball.

Amanda Hall was from Foxworth, MS.

Tracy Massey worked in the campus bookstore. Angela Hutson, Tim Johnson, and Tracy worked together. They each signed a table in the bookstore that is now located in the Alumni Office.

Gay Luke always enjoyed the BSU Retreats.

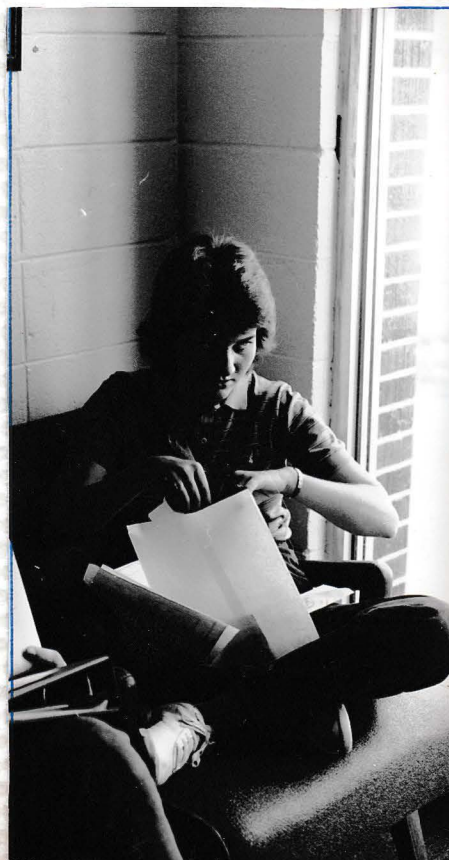

Tony Higginbotham was a music major at Clarke.

Noami Crowell, from Quitman, and Lisa Ainsworth just returned from FRED'S. Both girls were involved in the Clarke College Choir.

Karen Howard always found a moment to show her "true" colors.

Angela Hutson worked on the 1986 TRACES Yearbook Staff.

Tracy Burge was a Resident Assistant in her dorm.

Celeste Stepp was the Editor of the 1987 TRACES Yearbook.

Dr. Worley.

Phil Ferguson and Lisa Lloyd practiced together for the 1985-86 Beauty/Beau Pageant.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Melton.

Susan Williams.

Terry McNally.

Noami Crowell and Tim McCaffrey met at Clarke. The Clarke tradition continued.

Coach Gibbon coached baseball at Clarke for several years.

Gail Adcock.

Tim McCaffrey and Randy Creel enjoyed playing intramural football.

Phil Smith.

The Pumpkin Run.

Danny Worsham

Tony Hickman and Suzzie Barnes made good use of the tennis courts.

William Spencer, Celeste Stepp, and Angela Hutson all posed for a photo on their way to the cafeteria.

Lynn Baker had the library in top shape. She was a great librarian.

Noami Crowell.

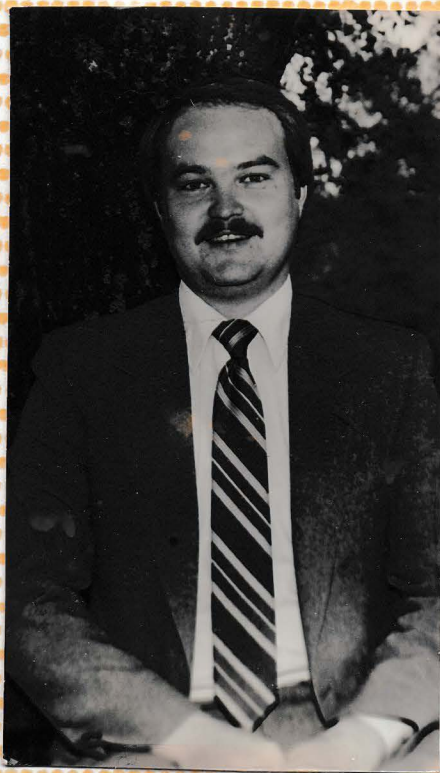

1983-84 intramural football.

Pam Waldrop and William Spencer were good friends during their time at Clarke.

Shelly Sasser was a music major at Clarke.

Sidney Thompson was the 1987-88 President of the Student Body Association.

Joye McAlpin, T.R. Darsey, Laura Jo Wedgeworth, and Tim Key enjoyed skating at First Baptist Church of Newton.

Sheila Walley worked in the library.

The 1987-88 Homecoming.

T.R. Darsey was a music major at Clarke.

Gary Killen started at Clarke in the fall of 1983.

"The lamb being led to slaughter?" No, but Nell Adams was headed for EAR TRAINING with student, Tony Higginbotham.

Donna Kay Gomillion was preparing for an escape from campus.

Rip Wolverton was a music major at Clarke. Often he and others could be found listening to their assignment for Music Literature in the library.

Noami Crowell was being fitted for her casual wear for the pageant. Looks like the salesperson got the outfit a little tight.

Bobby Seal had a pet snake in his dorm room.

Gay Luke kept a baton in her Mustang for protection.

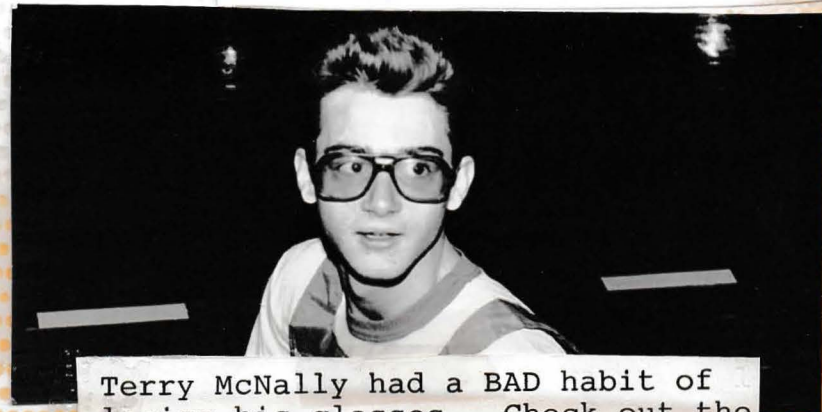

Susan Williams studied Elementary Education.

Phil Ferguson played baseball at Clarke. He was found safe on first base.

Mrs. Williams.

Terry McNally had a BAD habit of losing his glasses. Check out the pair in this photo.

Bobby Seal and Donna Kay Gomillion
at the 1985-86 Beauty/Beau Pageant.

David Bonner and Beth Higginbotham
at the 1985-86 Beauty/Beau Pageant.
Beth never knew what David was going to do.

Lyddia Ramsey.

William Spencer and Carla McNally
at the 1985-86 Beauty/Beau Pageant.

Coach Gibbon.

Tammy Fox now serves as a missionary.

Stanley Coleman and Hope Thornton were the 1984-85 Most Handsome and Most Beautiful. Stanley was the first African -American to win this title.

Arvis "Buster" McMillian played intramural football.

Patricia Ives posed outside the dorm. Who was behind her?

Carla McNally, Amanda Hall, and Beth Higginbotham put on the charm for one of the pageant judges at a reception.

Gay Luke and Angela Hutson at a Turkey Creek fellowship.

Celeste Stepp needed a man, but JcPenney wouldn't give him up. She finally caught her true love - Paul Bryan.

Barry Vinson was loved by all the girls. Pictured with him is Gail Adcock.

Rebecca LaBeth and Paul Bryan enjoyed the new swings on the campus.

David Bonner started Clarke in the fall of 1986.

Daphne Pigott and her husband, Ty, both attended Clarke.

Shelly Sasser had trouble with the shoulder pad in her outfit. Good thing it was borrowed from JcPenney for the pageant.

Paul Bryan took a break on the grass during a ball game.

Paul Earley, from Meridian, and Tony Hickman played intramural basketball.

Angela Hutson and Tim Johnson discussed a problem with the yearbook.

J.B. and Virginia Costilow.

Carla McNally.

The Clarke College Singers
(L to R) Kim Puckett, Brian Pannell,
Rhonda Hickman, Tony Hickman, Carol
Ann Adkins, Gary Snowden, and Lisa
Fletcher.

Bonnie Johnson.

Johnny Britt

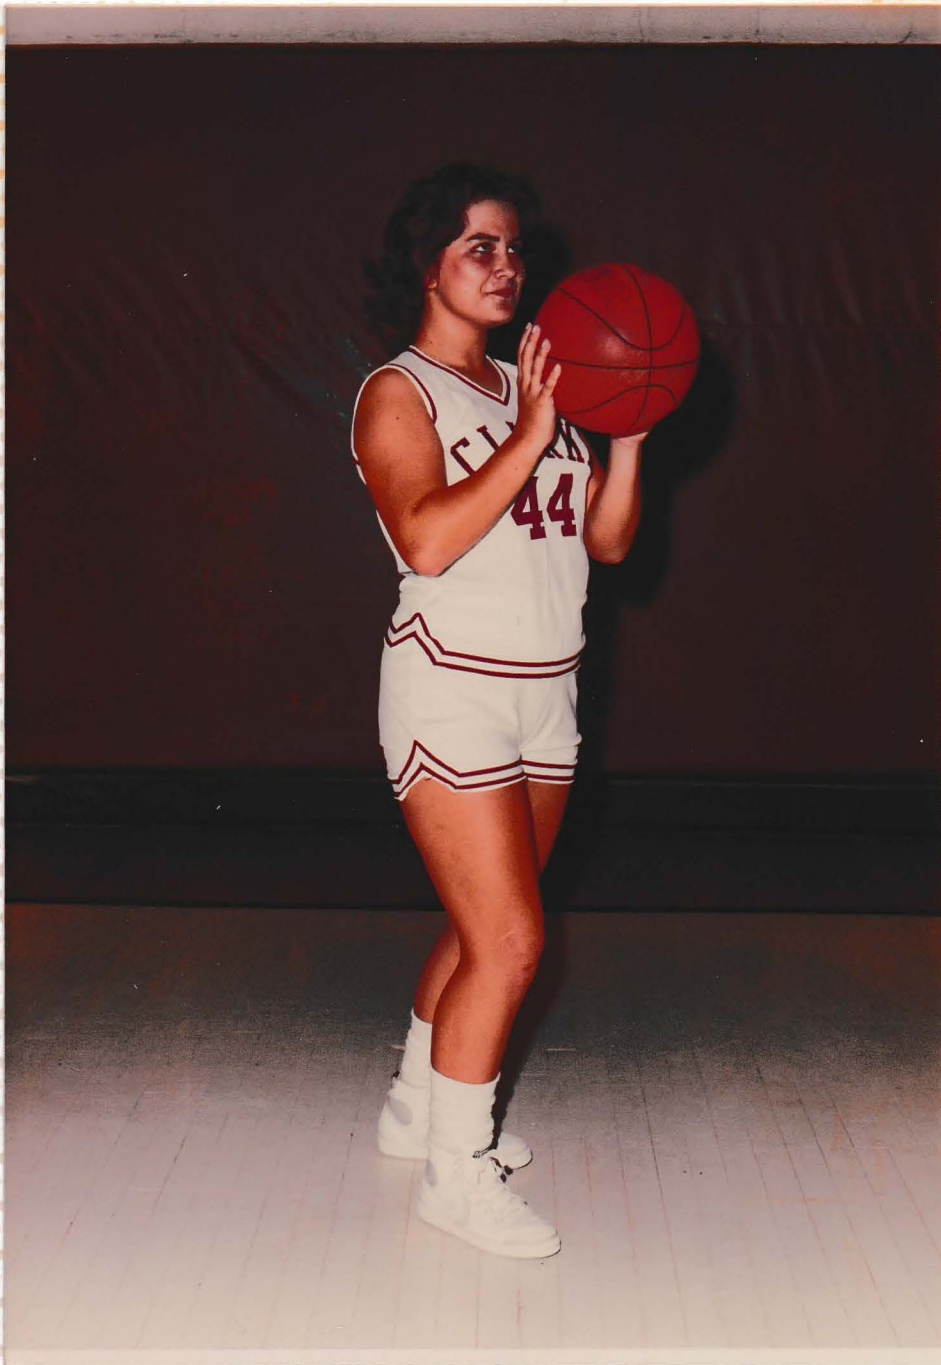

Wes Johnson

Shane Harrington

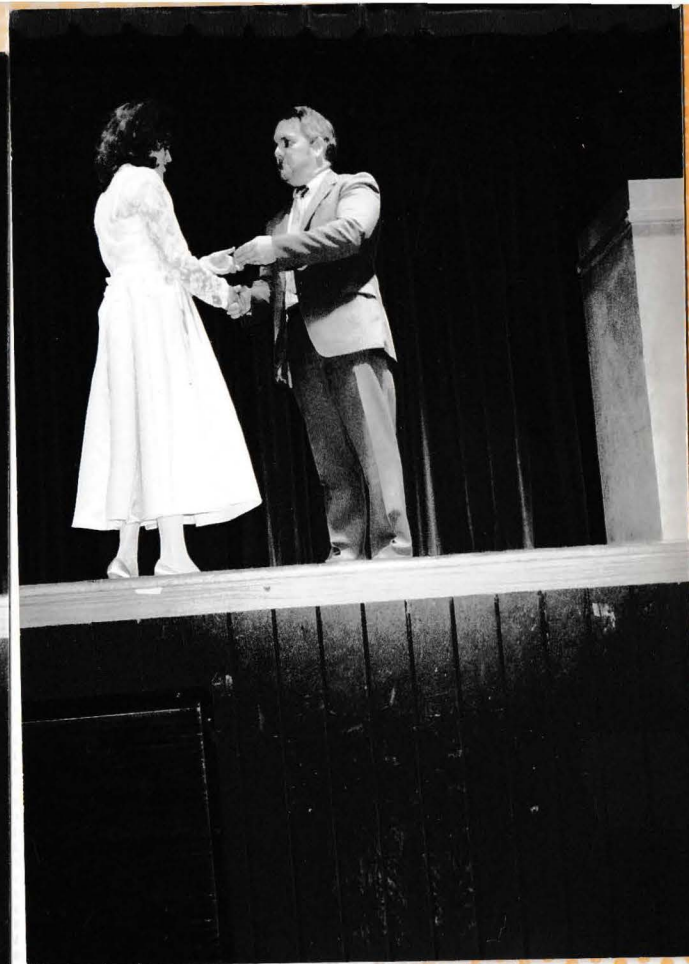

Travis Buse

Donna Poole

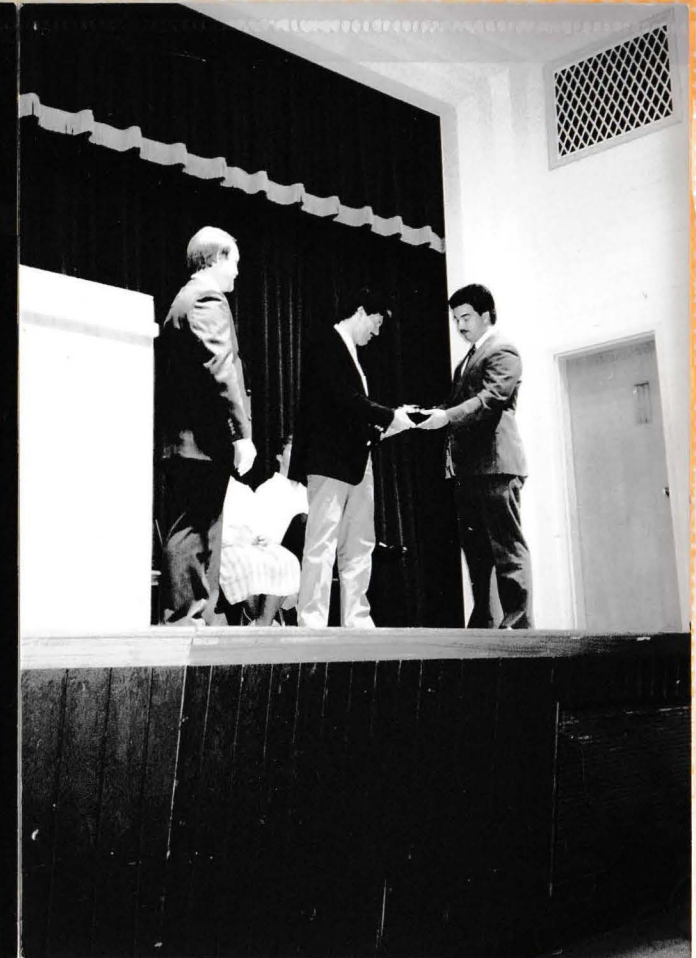

Faye Falvey

Dr. Read recognized Hall of Famers
Sheila Newbaker, Rhonda Hickman, and Lisa Fletcher.

Dr. Read recognized MC at Clarke Hall of Famer Karen Howard. He also presented Sue Chaffin with a scholarship.

Sidney Thompson and Kevin White, SBU sponsor, recognized Ray Spence for his contribution to the SBA.

Doc Myers

Clark Adams

Founding members of the PHI THETA KAPPA.
(L to R) Nancy ~~Cole~~, Tammie Logan,
Rebecca Wilkerson, Teri Null, Ed Baker,
Bob Null, Kevin Reine, and Richard Wallace. Mrs. Lynn Baker help to start the Clarke College chapter.

Amanda Hall

Hall of Famer, Janea Savell, was recognized by Dean Read.

Gay Luke and Randy Creel in a WHO'S WHO photo. Looks like Gay was the boss.

Bunnie McGee scored well over a 1,000 points in one season at Clarke. The night she scored her 1,000th point, the Clarke crowd went wild.

David Bonner and Karen Howard.

Clyde Lane.

1984-85 Welcome to the New Students. (L to R) J. Dow Ford, Rhonda Sylvester, Susan Williams, Penny Mosley, Colleen Twilbeck, Angie Sandlin, Tim Johnson, Johnny Lawrence, and Rebecca Wilkerson.

(L to R) Johnny Lawrence, Teri Null, Angie Ethridge, Penny Mosley, Kevin Reine, Missy Belcher, and Johnny Sykes. (Look carefully in the background and you will see Carla McNally and Tracy Massey.)

Tim Cooper and Kevin Reine.

Lou Dees was just one of the many guys who had to go to the local laudromat to wash his clothes. The washers and dryers in Huddleston Hall never worked. Lou also snagged the groceries at BIG STAR while he was out.

Angela Hutson was best known by her nickname - 'La.

A Clarke fellowship in the cafeteria. Pictured are John Dent and his daughter Laura and Mack Carney.

Welcoming for Dr. Bill Ellis and Mr. Williams.

(L to R) Mr. Williams, Virginia
Costilow, and Evelyn Williams.

(L to R) Dr. and Mrs. Nobles,
Dr. and Mrs. Martin, Dr. Ron Kirkland.

(L to R) Mrs. Kirkland, Dr.
Bill Ellis, and Mr. Williams.

(L to R) Mrs. Martin, Dr. and Mrs. Ron Kirkland, and Dr. Bill Ellis.

Faye Falvey was a "real hitter" with the all-female softball team.

Ann Magee attend Clarke with her sister, Bunnie.

The CAJUN (David Grumbach) always drove the SWEET POTATO QUEEN (Tammie Logan) crazy. May be that is why they got married.

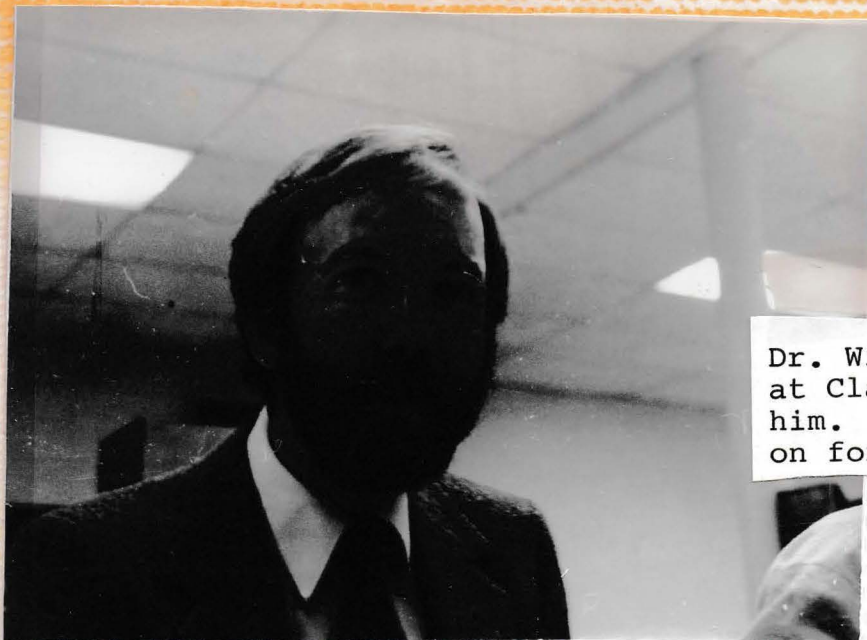

Bonnie Johnson was best known by the name "Bear".

Paul Bryan was always up on the latest fashion. Check out the socks.

Randy Bonner was famous for throwing eggs off of Huddleston Hall at Halloween. He was also into fashion. Who could forget those white shoes?!

Dr. Williams was an English instructor at Clarke. All of the students loved him. He was constantly being picked on for driving a BMW.

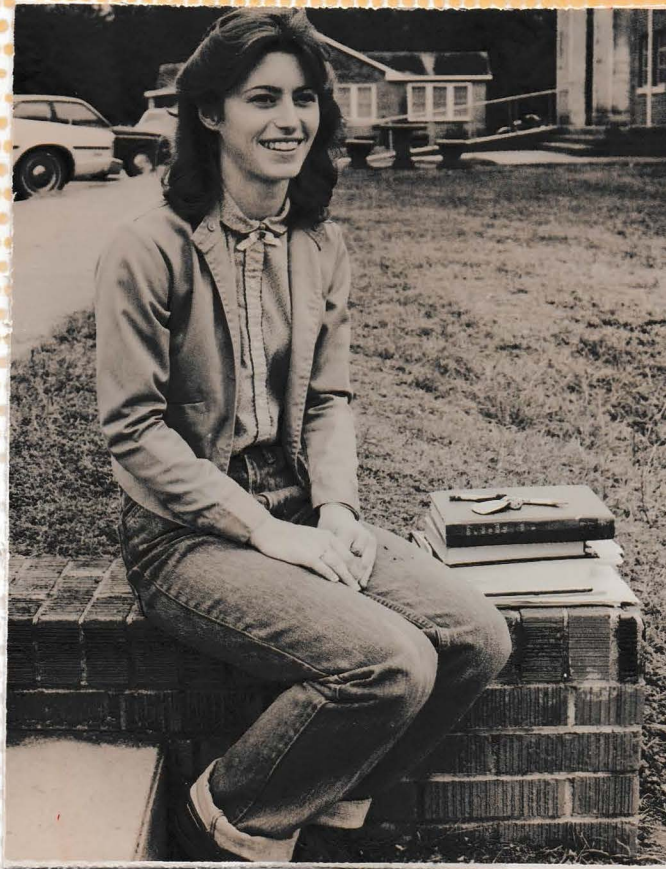

Gail Adcock and Lisa Lloyd during one of their many basketball games at Clarke.

Paul Siau was a guy with a style of his own.

The late-Vivian Banks, from Raleigh, always could make us laugh. She once told a story about a mouse in her dorm room and how it got in her hair. Vivian also did a great interpretation of one of the creatures from the NBC mini-series, "V".

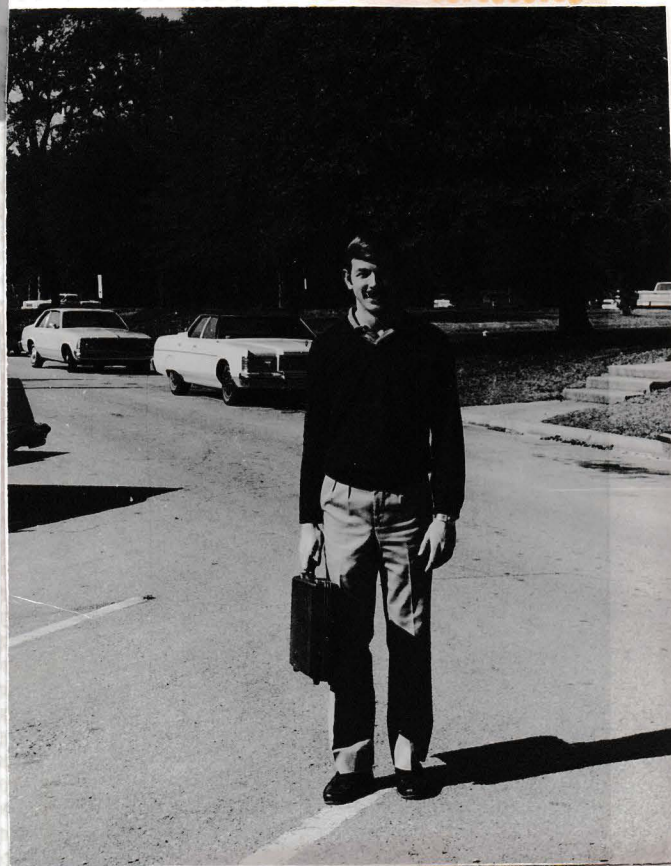

Joye McAlpin would always scream when Tim Johnson would pick her up and start running down the halls of the Fine Arts building.

Teresa Norris, Roz Cottingham, and Laura Smith attempted to see who could blow the biggest bubble. Teresa cheated.

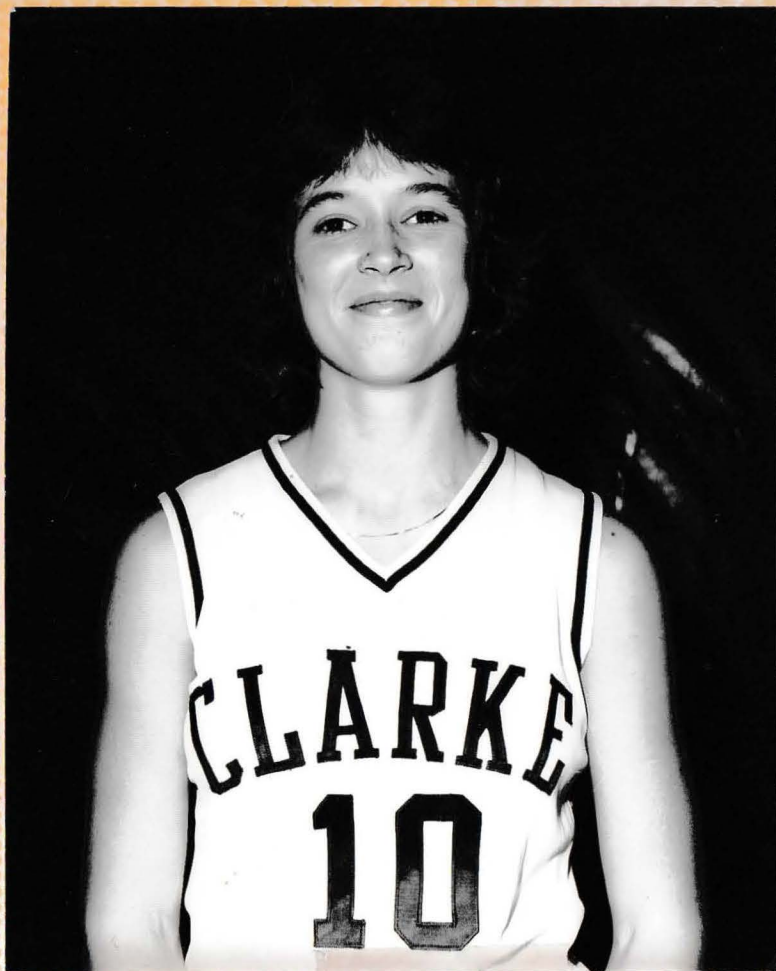

Jim Twilbeck and Ann Adkins were named the 1983-84 Mr. and Miss Clarke College.

Jim Twilbeck met his wife at Clarke.

During the 1983-84 school year, Ann Adkins was named MISS CLARKE COLLEGE, MOST BEAUTIFUL, AND HOMECOMING QUEEN. No other student had, or ever did again, win all three.

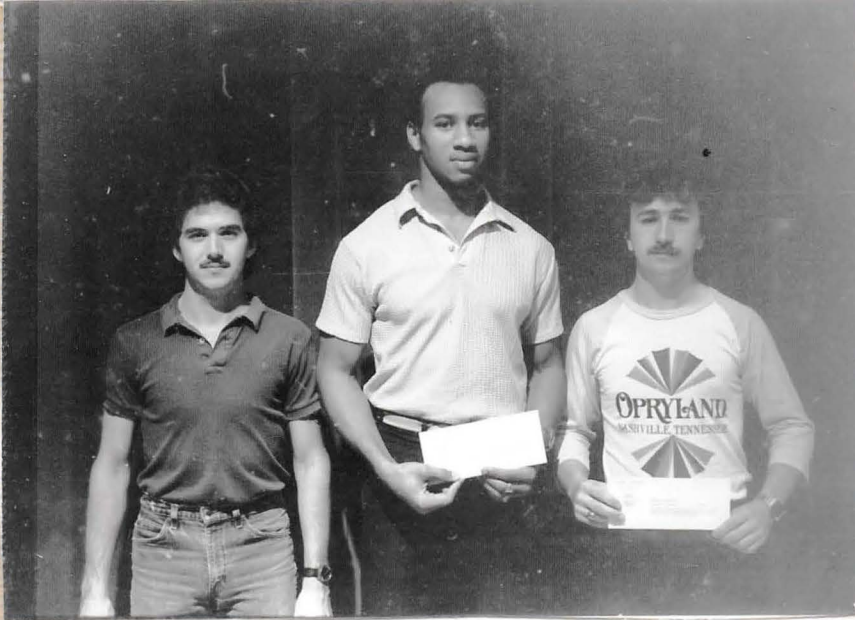

Jan Smith played basketball at Clarke. She started Clarke in 1982.

Dr. Ron Kirkland speaks at the 1983 Thanksgiving fellowship. Seated next to him is Tim Aycock. Pete Pearce and Martha Bryant are directly in the front of Dr. Kirkland.

Moses Onwubiko, Johnny Lawrence, Franklin Buckley, Kevin Reine, and Elaine Nunley received scholarships at the 1984 Awards Day Ceremony.

Gary Killen, Gene McMullan, and Jamie Meaders received scholarships at the 1984 Awards Day Ceremony.

Mary Platt, David Grumbach, and Johnny Sykes received scholarships at the 1984 Awards Day Ceremony.

Nancy ~~Cole~~ and Tim Johnson received scholarships at the 1984 Awards Day Ceremony.

BASKETBALL AWARDS

Guys

Wayne Housley - Sportmanship
 Lorenzo McNichols - Best Defensive
 Franklin Buckley - Work Horse Award
 Anthony McKenzie - Most Improved
 Thomas Hawkins - Most Valuable Player and Best Offensive

Girls

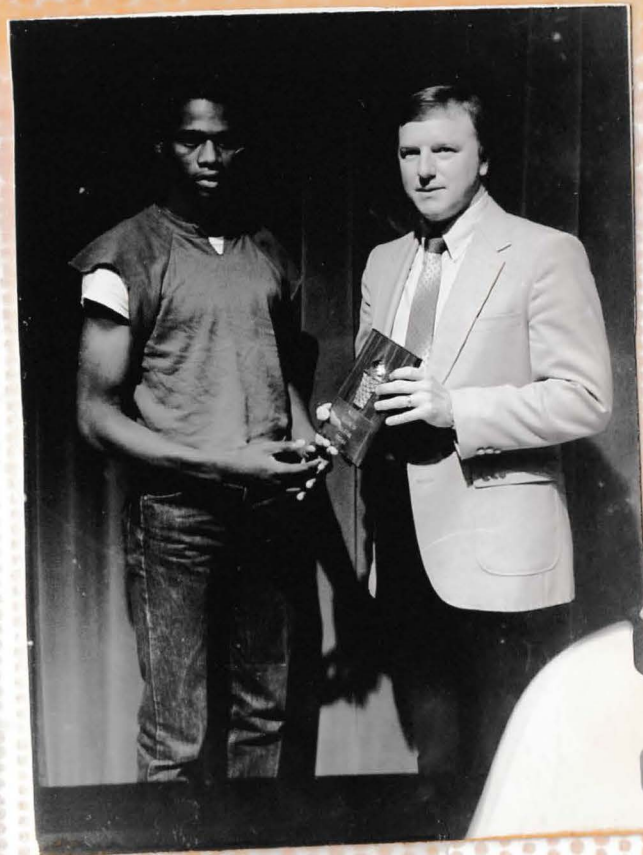

Ammie Davis - Most Improved
 Faye Falvey - Most Valuable Player
 Ann Adkins - Sportmanship
 Hope Thornton - Best Offensive
 Elaine Nunley - Best Defensive

Ann Adkins won the PANTHER AWARD.

Athletic Awards given by Tom Prather to Ann Adkins, Jan Smith, and Thomas Hawkins.

Thomas Hawkins

Suzzie Barnes had the Clarke College spirit.

INSIDE EDGE OF BLUE BORDER IS THE E

S BUILDING

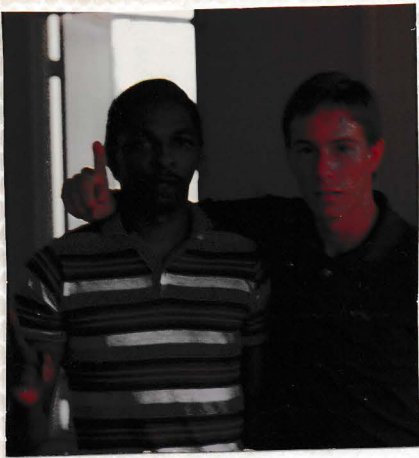

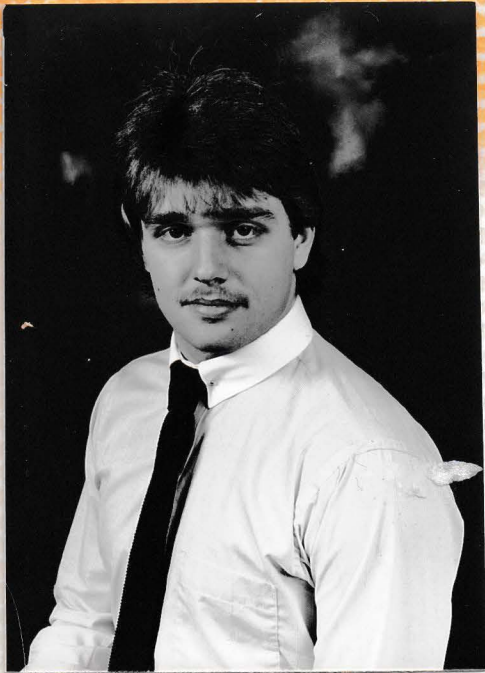

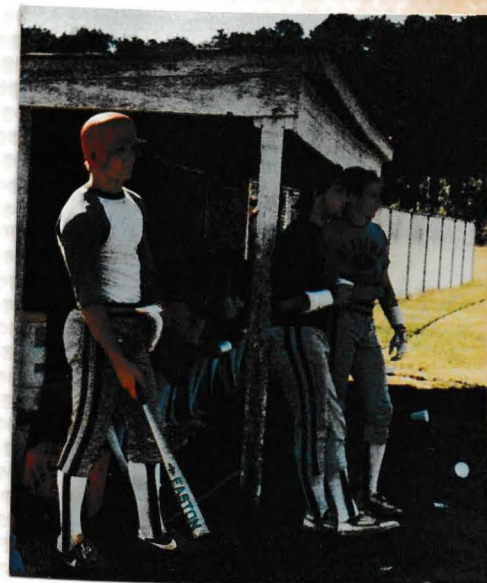

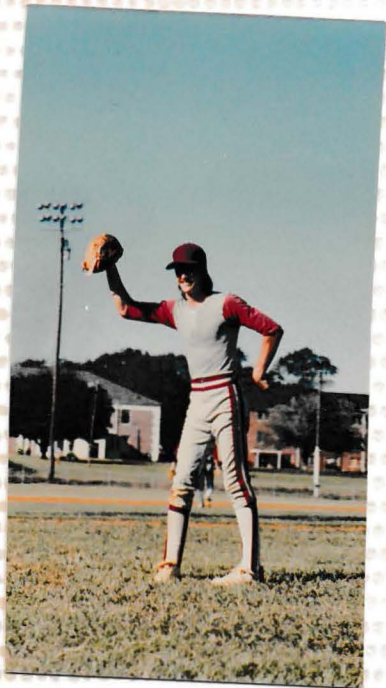

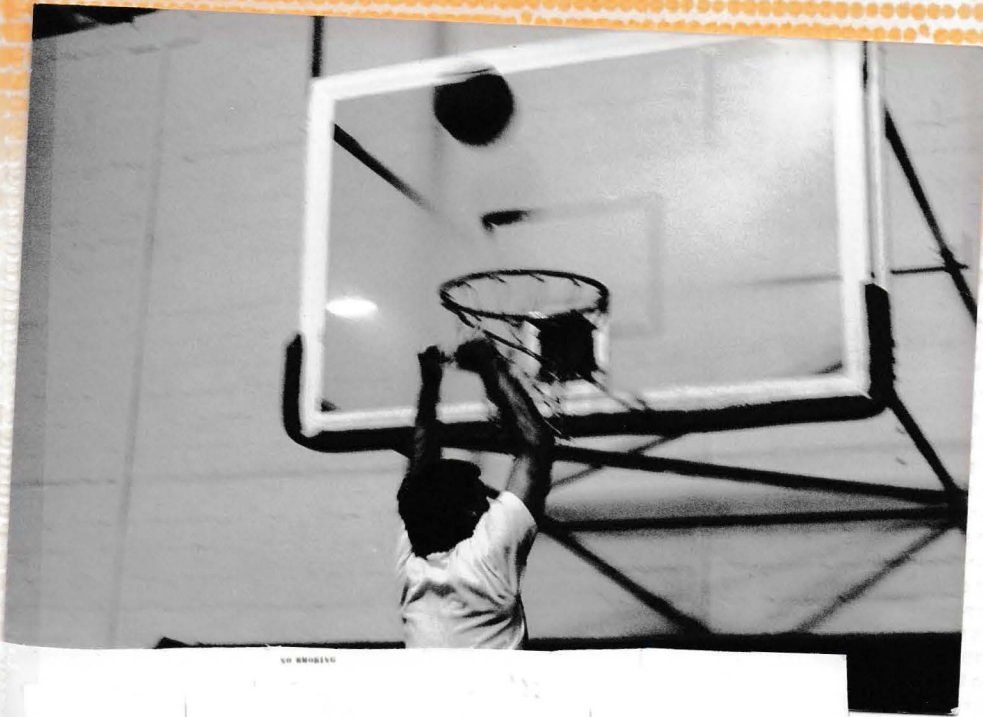

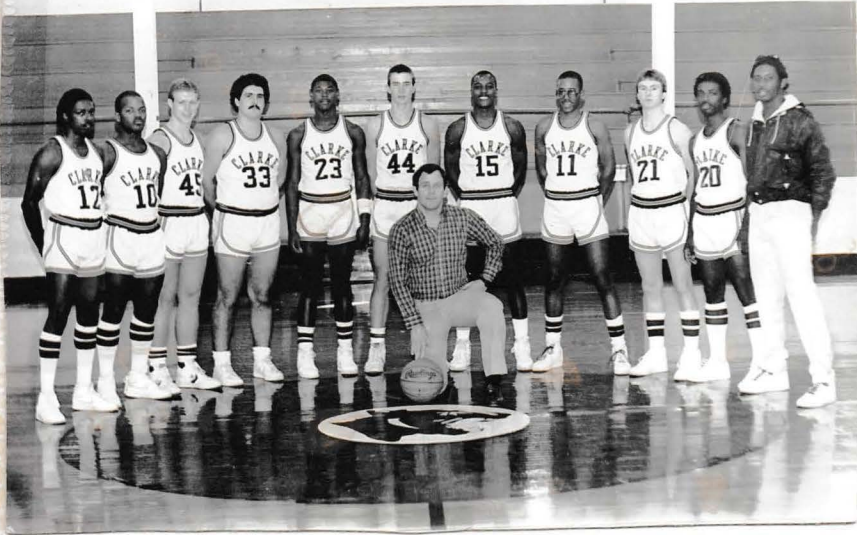

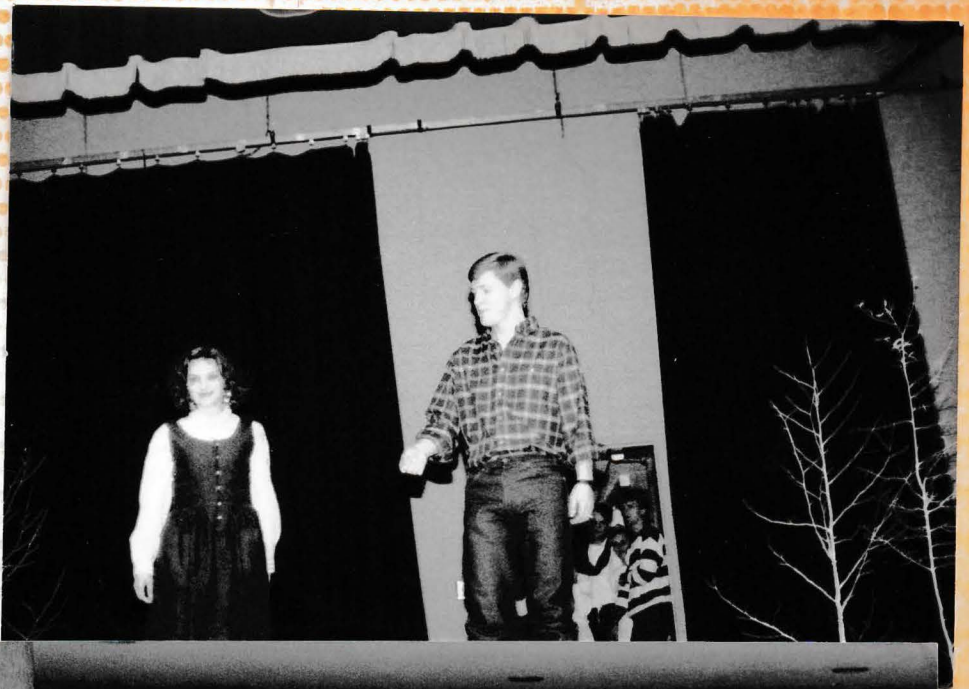

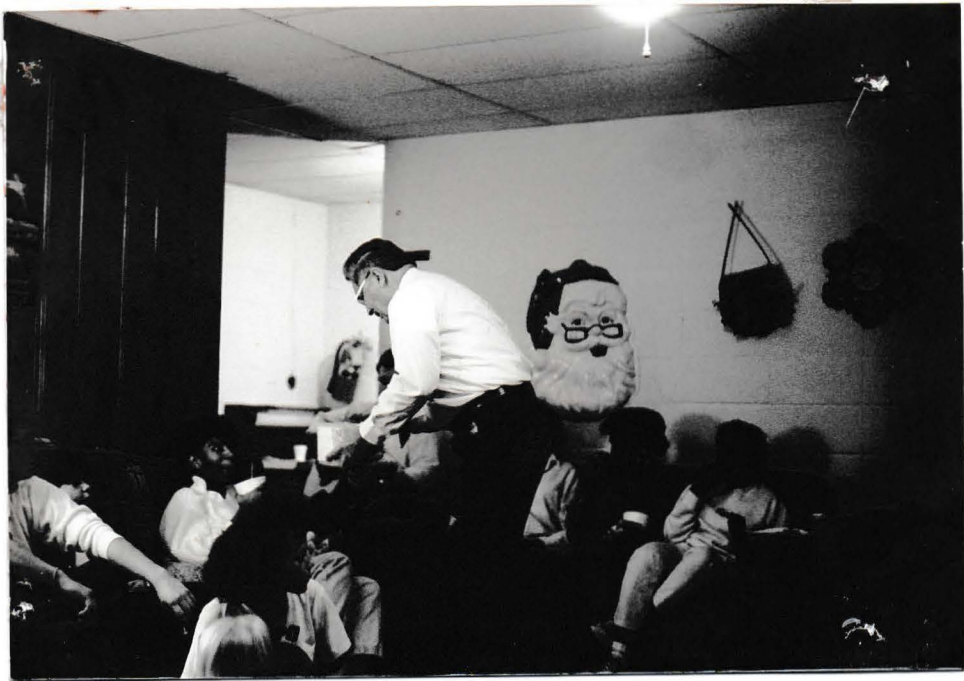

NO. 1000000000

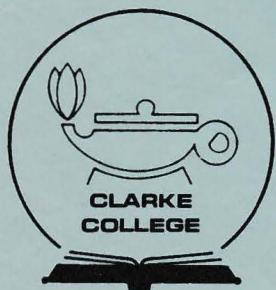

THE CLARKE COLLEGE SINGERS

UNDER THE DIRECTION OF CLARK ADAMS

WILL BE AT _____

ON _____

CLARKE COLLEGE - NEWTON, MS. 39345

" A Great Place To Be Somebody "

ITINERARY
Clarke College Choir Tour
1986

Monday, March 31: Newton to Union to Newton

36 miles

- 11:40 - Eat dinner at Clarke
- 12:10 - Warm up and load up
- 1:00 - Set up for worship service
- 1:30 - Worship Hour
First Baptist Church 774-8144
Union, MS
Allen Hill, Minister of Music
Rev. Terrell Suggs, Pastor

Friday, April 4: Newton to Vicksburg

110 miles

- 1:00 - Load bus and van
- 1:30 - Warm up and final devotion
- 1:50 - Bye-Bye Clarke
- 3:55 - Unload and set up for worship service
- 6:00 - Evening meal
- 7:00 - Worship Service
Highland Baptist Church (601) 636-7349
Vicksburg, MS 37180
Rev. Bill Patton, Pastor
Mr. David Grimsley, Minister of Music
- 8:15 - Meet your new mom and dad
- 11:30 - Lights out! No snoring allowed.

Saturday, April 5: Vicksburg, MS to Richardson, TX

400 miles

- 8:00 - Load up
- 8:30 - Leave Vicksburg and Mississippi. I hope we can return!
- 5:30 - Check in at Holiday Inn
Richardson, TX (214) 238-1900
- 11:13 - Lights out!! Eyes shut!! Mouth closed!! Feet still!!

Sunday, April 6:

Breakfast on your own.

- 7:47 - Load up and check out.
- 8:00 - Find the church
- 8:10 - Warm up and set up
- 9:00 - Worship hour
Richardson Heights Baptist Church (214) 238-7243
701 Belt Line Road
Richardson, TX 75080
Jerry Brown, Minister of Music
Dr. Phil Lineberger, Pastor
- 10:00 - Load up and head out for Oklahoma
Sunday School lesson taught en route by Jim Hill
- 4:00 - Unload and set up for evening worship hour
- 5:00 - Evening meal
- 7:00 - Worship Service
First Baptist Church (405) 547-2494
Perkins, OK 74059
David Brown, Minister of Music

- 8:00 - Fellowship period. Meet your host.
- 10:47 - Sandman time! Tomorrow will be a hard day!

Monday, April 7: Perkins, OK to Iola, KS

250 miles

- 8:00 - Load up and warm up.
- 8:00 - Please find your favorite seat on our touring bus.
- 3:50 - Arrive alive! And set up for the evening service.
- 6:00 - Evening meal
- 7:00 - Worship service
Grace Baptist Church (316) 365-5774
705 E. Madison
Iola, KS 66749
Rev. Jeff Hemken, Pastor (316) 365-7139
- 8:15 - Hey folks, it's me, your new kid for one night!
- 10:49 - "Beddy-bye" time. Tomorrow will be the hardest day yet!

Tuesday, April 8: Iola, KS to Bethalto, IL

383 miles

- 7:27 - Load up and warm up.
- 8:10 - Say Good-bye!
- 5:15 - set up-stretch out-sing out
- 6:15 - Evening meal
- 7:00 - Worship service
Meadowbrook Baptist Church (618) 377-9831
Rt. 1
Bethalto, IL 62010
Rev. Calvin Reynolds, Pastor (618) 377-1874
- 8:15 - Dear folks, I'm really a good kid! You will like me, I promise!
- 11:00 - Lights out! Except for Shelly, she can stay up until 11:05.

Wednesday, April 9: Bethalto, IL to Humboldt, TN

308 miles

- 7:48 - Load up and warm up
- 8:30 - Kiss your folks and Shelly and say good-bye.
- 4:15 - Set up for evening service
- 6:00 - Evening meal - Eat in choir outfits
- 7:00 - Worship hour - Prayer meeting
First Baptist Church (901) 784-1883
3400 East Mitchell
Humboldt, TN 38343
Dr. Ed North, Pastor
Mr. Rickey Clark, Minister of Music
- 8:15 - Introduction of choir member to host
- 11:00 - "Nightie-night"

Thursday, April 10: Humboldt, TN to Batesville, MS

190 miles

- 8:00 - I've seen you before.
- 9:00 - Let's head back to God's best creation----Mississippi!!!!
Free time in Memphis
- 4:00 - Unload, warm up, loosen up, set up, etc., etc.
- 6:00 - Evening meal
- 7:00 - Worship Service
Calvary Baptist Church (601) 563-7422
Batesville, MS 38606
Rev. Harrison Weeger, Pastor (601) 563-2161
- 8:15 - Last night out - Leroy, no one was supposed to snore.
- 11:00 - Did you hear me ask you to quit laughing?

Friday, April 11: Batesville to Pearl to Newton

215 miles

- 8:10 - Meet at church to load and warm up
- 9:00 - Off we go!
Free time at the Jackson Mall
- 4:00 - Unload and set up
- 6:00 - Supper time
- 7:00 - Worship hour
Trinity Baptist Church (601) 939-6622
Pearl, MS 38208
Rev. David Manesco, Pastor
Jo Wood, Minister of Music
- 8:30 - Head out for Newton
- 10:00 - You get to sleep in your own bed!!! Hip! Hip! Hip!.....?

Saturday, April 11: Newton to Laurel to Newton

120 miles

- 2:30 - Load van and warm up
- 4:00 - Unload van and set up
- 6:00 - Evening meal
- 7:00 - Worship Service
Salem Heights Baptist Church (601) 763-7571
Box 2721
Laurel, MS 39440
Rev. D. J. Benson, Pastor (601) 428-1084
- 8:30 - Load van and head home
- 11:30 - You know what time it is!

Sunday, April 12: Newton to Forest to Newton

75 miles

- 7:10 - Breakfast on your own
- 8:55 - Warm up in choral room dressed in choir outfits
- 9:15 - Head for Forest. Sunday School lesson taught by Angela Hutson.
- 10:00 - Set up
- 11:00 - Worship Service
Ephesus Baptist Church
Forest, MS 39074
Rev. Kenneth Jones, Pastor
Mr. Don Gomillion, Minister of Music
- 12:00 - Dinner on the grounds, although I prefer in my stomach.
- 1:15 - Well, well, well
- 2:00 - Free time in Newton, MS - Home of the Clarke College Choir
- 5:30 - Evening meal
- 6:00 - Last devotion together
- 7:00 - Worship Service
First Baptist Church
Newton, MS 39345
Dr. Frank Harmon, Pastor
Mr. Randy Cutchens, Minister of Music
- 8:15 - Load up
- 8:19 - Unpack everything

Wednesday, April 16: Clarke College

0 miles

7:30 - Warm up in choral room
11:00 - Chapel Service
Clarke College
Newton, MS
Dr. Ron Kirkland, Dean
12:00-- Possible . . .dinner on the grounds.

Committee Assignments

PA equipment, Pulpit furniture, and Risers

All men and singers - Rip Wolverton, Chairman

Luggage Loading and Program, Publicity Dispersment

Everyone - Jim Hill, Chairman

Devotional, Testimonies, and Inspirational Moments

Angela Hutson and those she designates

Thanks for a great tour!!!

